Why Cashier's Checks or Money Orders are required

Members are required to pay by Cashier's Check or Money Order so that funds are guaranteed and immediately available. Members who want to pay with a company check must meet the requirements listed below and complete the attached Company Check/ACH Acceptance Agreement.

Application Requirements

Copart, Inc., will permit a member to pay using their company check providing that the following conditions are met:

- 1. Processing Fee – The member must pay a non-refundable $25.00 fee for credit reporting and processing. This payment must be written from the bank account that the member intends to use for purchases from Copart, Inc., and must include member's company name printed on the front, if applicable. This check must be submitted with the application.
- 2. Agreement Completed in Full—The Company Check/ACH Acceptance Agreement requires both business and personal information and must be completed in full. Incomplete applications will be returned to the applicant; however, the fee will be retained by Copart, Inc.
- 3. Bank Account History— The member's checking account must have been open and active for at least 6 months, have an average balance of at least $10,000 for the past six months, and no history of NSF. The member's bank must complete the attached Bank Verification form with the account number, date opened, average daily balance, NSF history, account rating, and the official bank stamp. Fax or mail this form to Copart, Inc., with the Copart's Company Check/ACH Acceptance Agreement.
- 4. References— The member must have at least two current business references.
- 5. Statement of Responsibility—The President/Owner of the company must sign a statement accepting personal and business responsibility for dishonored checks and any associated fees.
- 6. Returned Checks— In the event that a check or ePayment is returned for any reason from your bank, you authorize Copart, Inc. to electronically (or by paper draft) re-present the check to your bank account for collection of the amount of the check, plus any applicable fees as permitted by state law.
- 7. ePay— Once Company Check approved, you will automatically be enrolled in ePay. It is not mandatory that you utilize the ePay payment method, but it will be available to you if you choose to use it.

Optional Method

Members that do not meet the minimum qualifications will not be approved for company check unless they provide Copart, Inc., with a Letter of Guarantee from their bank and the completed application with the $25.00 fee attached.

Letter of Guarantee Requirements:

Copart, Inc., must be issued a letter from the bank where the company checks are drawn, stating that the bank will guarantee any check written to Copart, Inc., on your company account. The information stated on the guarantee letter should include:

1. Name and branch of bank extending the guarantee
2. Name of Bank Officer authorizing the guarantee
3. Member's company name and account number
4. Person(s) authorized to issue your company checks
5. Total amount guarantee (Minimum of $10,000)
6. Expiration date of guarantee (Minimum of 1 year)

Should you have any questions, please feel free to call the Copart, Inc. Member A/R Dept. (707) 646-2187.

A. Authorizing and Paying Your Bill

You may use ePay to make payments to Copart, Inc., directly from your account with your financial institution in the amount specified by you. By making the appropriate selections and clicking on the authorization button, ("Submit Payment" button) you authorize Copart, Inc., to follow the payment instructions that it receives from you. Specifically, you authorize Copart, Inc., to debit your bank account on file with Copart, Inc., and remit funds to your Copart, Inc., account on your behalf. Copart, Inc. shall incur no liability if it is unable to complete any payments because of one of the following:

- Your financial account does not have sufficient funds to complete the payment or the payment would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account;
- The processing financial institution's and/or Copart's processing function is not working properly;
- You have not provided Copart, Inc. with the correct financial institution information or Copart account information;
- Circumstances beyond Copart's control prevent the proper execution of the payment.

B. Payment Services

1. ePay will require you to pay all outstanding balances that are more than 30 days old before allowing you to make other payments.
2. Once you hit the 'Submit Payment' button, your Copart, Inc. account will be immediately credited with the designated payment. However, be advised that your account with your financial institution may not immediately reflect payment. If payment is not reflected in your account after two business days, please contact Member AR at 707-646-2187.
3. Payments made using ePay will be applied to your account on the calendar day received by Copart, Inc. as determined pursuant to Pacific Standard Time (PST).
4. Payments returned due to insufficient funds and their applicable fees will be recovered electronically. In the event that a check or ePayment is returned for any reason from your bank, by signing this agreement, you authorize Copart, Inc. to electronically (or by paper draft) re-present the check to your bank account for collection of the amount of the check, plus any applicable fees as permitted by state law.

C. Termination of an Electronic Payment Service

Copart, Inc., reserves the right, at any time and for any or no reason, to cancel the ePay service, make additions or changes to the service, or to cancel or suspend your usage of the service.

D. Fees

Copart, Inc. will not impose a fee or other charge on you for you to use any of the listed payment services. However, the financial institution from which you have authorized payment may charge you fees other than setup related to the maintenance of that account, including transaction fees or fees for attempting payments without sufficient funds. Copart, Inc. will charge you a Non Sufficient Funds (NSF) processing fee of $100 for any payment that is returned unpaid by your financial institution.

E. Electronic Signatures and Records

Your authorization of payments via the 'Confirm Payment' functionality of the website will be treated as an electronic signature indicating your intent to sign the authorization and also your intent to agree with and be bound by these ePay Terms & Conditions and acknowledging receipt of same. Your electronic signature also signifies that you recognize and agree that Copart, Inc. may keep all of your electronic payment transaction records in an electronic format.

F. Disclosure of Account Information to Third Parties

1. It is our general policy to treat your account information and personally identifiable financial information as within the Copart, Inc., family of companies. In addition to any terms contained within Copart's Privacy Policy, we will disclose this information in the following situations:
 - When it is necessary to complete the transaction that you have requested, which may include disclosure to processing or intermediate banks or financial institutions performing such a function;
 - In order to verify your account to a third party with a right to receive such information, such as a credit bureau;
 - To a consumer reporting agency;
 - In order to comply with a governmental agency or court order; or
 - When you give us written permission.
2. We use information security safeguards and techniques to protect our customers' data. However, all customers should be aware that Copart, Inc., is not liable for any unauthorized access to personal information that is beyond Copart's control such as in the instance of malicious programming attacks (i.e., "Hacking").

G. Passwords and Security

You agree not to give or make available your online account access username and password or other means to access your account to any unauthorized persons.
